So Emotional

Just be yourself at the Telephone Booth Gallery.

BY LIBBY PAGE

Jaimie Warren's photographic diptychs and triptychs examine life through creative juxtaposition, in combinations of unwashed plates and expressions of despair — or cigarettes and sheep. Expect a similar mishmash of activity from her Special XXX Emotional Event, scheduled from 6 to 9 p.m. Friday at the Telephone Booth Gallery (3319 Troost).

Warren knows what she's doing, having put on 14 similar bazaars. This Halloween-themed event boasts pie throwing, face painting, games and performance art in a cemetery setting. Five bands — Witch and Hare, Bloody V and the Sutures, Y Not,

Don't Tell Pope, and Tina Peepee — take the stage, covering extreme goth and spoken-word comedy. Warren offers a musical style she calls "poetica" — part poetry, part erotica. Visitors can also check out the Haunted Troost Minivan. The festivities take place in the lot next to the gallery and mark the end of Warren's exhibit Don't Try Not to Be Me. Just Be Yourself. Check out her show inside until 8 p.m.; call 816-582-9812 or see www.telephoneboothgallery.com for details.
